

As a U.S. Air Force veteran, Sandy wanted to visit the National Memorial at Pearl Harbor.

Thank you for making U.S. Air Force veteran Sandy's childhood Dream of visiting Oahu come true!

Many veterans want to pay their respects at military memorials, or travel to destinations they've dreamed of visiting their entire lives. You helped U.S. Air Force veteran Sandy do both!

When Sandy was a child, she had an aunt and uncle who lived on Oahu, Hawaii. They sent Sandy glorious postcards that made her fall in love with the mystery and beauty of the islands.

From a very young age, Sandy resolved to visit Hawaii one day, to see those postcard views first-hand.

Having served in the U.S. Air Force, Sandy's Dream of Hawaii became entwined with a desire to visit Pearl Harbor.

Dreams of a lifetime come true thanks to you!

You helped make Sandy's Dream possible. Our generous partner, Alaska Airlines, provided two round-trip flights for Sandy and her husband, Larry, and our friends at Ola Properties hosted the couple in a beautiful villa just outside of Honolulu with stunning views of the ocean.

It was the perfect place for Sandy and Larry to relax on the balcony and soak up the Hawaiian breezes, views and sunshine.

Ola Properties had two deluxe orchid leis and a bottle of champagne waiting for the couple's arrival as a special welcoming touch.

Your gifts provided Sandy and Larry with an authentic Hawaiian lu'au, along with funds for other experiences and expenses.

They toured the Dole Plantation and Pearl Harbor. On boat trips, Sandy sipped Pina Colodas on the deck while Larry snorkeled in the sea below.

Thank you for providing Sandy with her Dream of a lifetime!

Sandy loved relaxing on her balcony overlooking the ocean!

Sandy and her husband enjoyed seeing the sights in Hawaii!

Here are just two of the Dreams currently in progress.

Danielle dreams of one last family reunion.

Danielle dreams of visiting family in Houston, Texas, with her children. She needs help with transportation, accommodation and care for the family dogs while they are away. Danielle wants to see her father and brother, who are both critically ill. She also wants her children to spend time with the relatives who will take them in when she dies.

Marla dreams of a trip to a log cabin in the woods with her grandson.

Marla dreams of taking a special trip with her grandson, Benny, who has lived with her since birth. Marla needs help with lodging, a rental car, gas, food and planning the trip. She says, "My hope is that Benny will have some good memories of our time together, instead of memories of me being so sick."
